

My Tragedy

G
My tragedy
G/B C2
Is that I'd minimize Your perfect love for me

Read about but not realize
Am7 D2 Em7 G G/B
Eternity is knowing You today

My fallen nature naturally falls back into You

If I allow it to

To see You just as You are
G G/B
You've allowed me to wander away
C2 D C2 D
To show me just how near You are to me

My tragedy
G/B C2
Is that I'd forget that it is You who's chosen me
G/B Am7
Freed me from my own religiosity
D Em7 C2 D
Pumped my heart alive

G G/B
I want to rest where You are and run where You're going
C2 Dsus D/F# G
All of existence comes back to knowing You
(You) loved me first and You'll love me last
Hope for my future, peace for my past
God of the ages, free from all molds
Writing the pages as history unfolds
With Christ at the centre, Father above
Spirit within us, life that is truly love

Our Salvation

You are Jesus

Our salvation
E E/G# A
Worthy is the lamb that was slain
A2 A
You hold all things
D2 D
King of all Kings
E E/G# A
You are more than earth and heaven can contain

A D E A

You who gave truth its foundation
Made Yourself of no reputation
Humbly the Word took flesh and dwelt among us
Receiving the life You had given
Clothed with the human condition
The cry of a baby sang of an unfailing love

Centered in Father's commission
Angry with empty tradition
You are the one who sees to the worth of man's soul
Redemption is found in Your piercing
Healing released by Your wounds
Stronger than death is love in the blood of the cross

Three hopeless days full of silence
Broken by light at the grave
He has risen – the gospel is alive
Sin and death are defeated
You are ascended and seated
Heaven is Your throne and earth is Your footstool

All of creation is longing
All of the earth bows its knee
You will return – You will fulfill revelation
Filling the ends of the earth
Your Story, Your glory, Your worth
The Spirit and the Bride cry, "Come"

You are growing me
Though I rarely understand

Bridge:

You love me
When all my strength is all but gone
You listen
To the secrets in my song

*And time will tell a million tales
Of Your faithfulness
And I'll endure patiently
For Your promises
The wind will blow, come rain and snow
This is hope I'll still confess
My humbled heart
Will hear Your voice
And I will enter Your rest*

Is moved by the words that i pray
We've seen You come down
Let us see You lifted up

Tomorrow

A

Don't take my feelings from me

D

Don't take my head and run away
You don't see the flowers spinning
Adding an hour to their day

F#m7 E D

I'm tiring of my own questions

F#m7 E D E

I'm anchoring in one confession

I will not worry about tomorrow

D A

You know what I need

All my holes are healing over
You uphold the whole of all You've made
I know the night's arriving
But You are the never-ending day

A E

Little flock, don't be afraid

F#m7 E/G# D E

Your Father's joy is giving His kingdom away

Cares and cash are fading fast
Carrying this world on its way
I've lost everything I have
I'm at home in hope beyond the grave

Resurrection

Is it enough to be faithful / When I want to be fulfilled
Can I feel this disabled / And still be in Your will

C D C Dsus D/F#

Set upon the resurrection

Is it enough to ask questions / And help others do the same
Is there a hope to invest in / Without a hole from which to drain

Oh I

I have an anchor for my soul

Oh I... I'm alive

C

When all the color is gone

Em G G/B

And the sky dims to gray

I will awaken the dawn

Bring tomorrow today

Is it enough to be silent / In light of Your complexity?
I will be satisfied / When You make my joy complete

Oh I

I want a life in love with You

Oh I... I'm alive
