

Intro

Shining brighter than the sun
We long to simply see You come
Make all things new

My Tragedy

My tragedy
Is that I'd minimize Your perfect love for me
Read about but not realize
Eternity is knowing You today

My fallen nature naturally falls back into You
If I allow it to

*I am coming just as I am
To see You just as You are
You've allowed me to wander away
To show me just how near You are to me*

My tragedy
Is that I'd forget that it is You who's chosen me
Freed me from my own religiosity
And pumped my heart alive

I want to rest where You are and run where You're going
All of existence comes back to knowing You
(You) loved me first and You'll love me last
Hope for my future, peace for my past
God of the ages, free from all molds
Writing the pages as history unfolds
With Christ at the centre, Father above
Spirit within us, life that is truly love

Our Salvation

*You are Jesus
Our salvation
Worthy is the lamb that was slain
You hold all things
King of all Kings
You are more than earth and heaven can contain*

You who gave truth its foundation
Made Yourself of no reputation
Humbly the Word took flesh and dwelt among us
Receiving the life You had given
Clothed with the human condition
The cry of a baby sang of an unfailing love

Centered in Father's commission
Angry with empty tradition
You are the one who sees to the worth of man's soul
Redemption is found in Your piercing
Healing released by Your wounds
Stronger than death is love in the blood of the cross

Three hopeless days full of silence
Broken by light at the grave
He has risen – the gospel is alive
Sin and death are defeated
You are ascended and seated
Heaven is Your throne and earth is Your footstool

All of creation is longing
All of the earth bows its knee
You will return; You will fulfill revelation
Filling the ends of the earth
Your Story, Your glory, Your worth
The Spirit and the Bride cry, "Come"

The Dawn

Everything we are
Is a dream within Your heart
The center of the plot is You

We are a voice in the wilderness
We are the fruit of the Father's promises
We declare Your kingdom
We are a seed in the underground
We will build while the world is tearing down
We declare Your kingdom

*We are watching, waiting
Faithful to persevere (Faith overcoming our fear)
We believe You, Jesus
The kingdom of heaven is near (The King of the heavens is here)*

We're calling out for the greater things
We're crying out for the life abundantly
We declare Your Kingdom
We have our hands on the ancient doors
We see the dawn that the world is longing for
We declare Your kingdom

Wake up, you sleepers
Stand up, you dreamers
Jesus, Redeemer
He is rising on you

The Greatest Commandment

You are my King
I am Your servant
You are my Father
I am Your child

I speak and think just to see You smile
I resolve to remain undefiled

*With all my heart
With all my mind
With all my strength
I love You, Lord*

I am Your bride,
You are my lover
I will abide in You
My best friend

I consecrate my way to You, my Lord
Pressing in, I pray to know You more

You are the one who loved me first
Filled me with breath—second birth
Let all of my life sing of all Your worth

Validation

I'm constantly questioning
The content I'm contributing

Am I content that you're listening?
I'm a steady second guesser
My more always ends up lesser
I tend to see in a submarine

My own hesitation
Feeds the separation
Between who I am and who I could be

*Make me whole
I want to breathe from the depths of my soul
To close my eyes and know
That I can't make myself grow
Make me new
I lift my head up to the sky
And let Your wonder overtake my why
I will wait for You*

Can I risk within my boundaries
Can I wreck my own confounding
And move in integrity?
You're the well that does not run dry
You're the way that will satisfy
Pure reality

There You are, steadfast
I'm holding fast to You
There You are, always
The hope I'm clinging to

When there's no sense in anything
When my heart is absent from my dreams
You're all that makes me true
I live above and below in resistance
Your love alone validates my existence
I will wait for You

Entering Rest

You see me
When I cannot find myself
You restore me
Before I even knew I fell

And time will tell a million tales

*Of Your faithfulness
My humbled heart
Will hear Your voice
And I will enter Your rest*

You know me
You have fashioned all I am
You are growing me
Though I rarely understand

You love me
When all my strength is all but gone
You listen
To the secrets in my song

*And time will tell a million tales
Of Your faithfulness
And I'll endure patiently
For Your promises
The wind will blow, come rain and snow
This is hope I'll still confess
My humbled heart
Will hear Your voice
And I will enter Your rest*

Lord

Where was I when You were hovering the surface of the waters?
Three in one; Spirit, Son and Father
In the beginning was You
Where was I when You laid the foundations of earth?
Measured out the universe
You were the first, You will be the last

*You are the Lord
And there is no other King
You are the Lord
And Your reign is everlasting
You are the Lord
God above all Gods
You are the Lord
And we have no other song to sing
You are the Lord*

Who am I that the Maker of Heaven and Earth

Would dream up the day of my birth?
My times are inside Your hands
Who am I that the bright shining ancient of days
Is moved by the words that I pray?
We've seen You come down
Let us see You lifted up

The Lord our God
The Lord is one
We join in the song of all of creation
We join in the song with every nation

Tomorrow

Don't take my feelings from me
Don't take my head and run away
You don't see the flowers spinning
Adding an hour to their day

I'm tiring of my own questions
I'm anchoring in one confession

*I will not worry about tomorrow
You know what I need
(You hold everything)*

All my holes are healing over
You uphold the whole of all You've made
I know the night's arriving
But You are the never-ending day

Little flock, don't be afraid
Your Father's joy is giving His kingdom away

Cares and cash are fading fast
Carrying this world on its way
I've lost everything I have
I'm at home in hope beyond the grave

Resurrection

You will make everything
Beautiful in Your time

Is it enough to be faithful
When I want to be fulfilled?
Can I feel this disabled
And still be in Your will?
Oh I... I want to be full of faith today
Oh... I'm alive

*Tonight awaken my soul
Time has taken a toll on my brain
And the promises that remain
Autumn's leaves are all gone
All my dreams are all wrong if they're not Set upon the resurrection*

Is it enough to ask questions
And help others do the same?
Is there a hope to invest in,
Without a hole from which to drain?
Oh I... I have an anchor for my soul
Oh... I'm alive

When all the color is gone
And the sky dims to gray
I will awaken the dawn
Bring tomorrow today

Is it enough to be silent
In light of Your complexity?
I will be satisfied
When You make my joy complete
Oh I... I want a life in love with You

Gold

I heard Him say:
"Come follow Me
Lay aside tomorrow's worry
Everything will be added to you

"He who loves his life will lose it
Laying bare his cares and bruises
See the cross; feast upon the truth"

My gold grew dim

And my soul went after Him

You have won me
You have won me
I am only Yours my Lord

Distinguish Us

*What else will establish us?
What else sets us apart?
What else will distinguish us,
Unless You are... (I Am)*

If You are pleased with me, teach me Your ways
Let Your Spirit be released in me, Ancient of Days
If Your presence isn't here, life has no meaning
I'm tearing out the wasted years, longing for Eden

Now, show me Your glory

Bless the Lord,
The compassionate and gracious God
Slow to anger,
Rich in faithfulness and love
Quick to forgive our sin
Just to judge and discipline Your children

Receive Your Reward

Would you break my heart
For the ones that weigh on Your heart

*Here am I
Send me Lord
Risen lamb
Receive Your reward*

Would You awaken my heart
With the life that makes up Your heart

My meaning
My purpose
Is Your pleasure
Your worship

Would You take my heart
For the sake of knowing Your heart
